

Strategic Plan: Towards 2025

FIRST NATIONS ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The ARLF acknowledges that our activities and initiatives are carried out on the traditional lands of Australia's First People. We acknowledge the traditional custodians of all the lands on which we meet, work and live and recognise that this land has always been and always will be Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander land.

OUR VISION

Thriving rural, regional and remote communities strengthening Australia and our regional neighbours

OUR PURPOSE

To foster and exercise leadership for positive impact

WHO WE ARE

We are an independent for-purpose organisation established in 1992. We are the only leadership development organisation in Australia with both a national footprint and a focus on rural, regional and remote.

OUR APPROACH

Through experiential learning we provide the opportunity for people to understand themselves and others as a framework to adapt and work together.

OUR VALUES

To support ARLF's vision and purpose and for human wellbeing and a sustainable shared environment we:

- 1. respect and engage with First Nations Cultural knowledge systems*
- 2. embrace a diversity of views, perceptions, backgrounds and cultures*
- 3. challenge entrenched ideas*
- 4. foster collaboration and act beyond self*
- 5. pursue lifelong learning*
