

Australian
Rural Leadership
Foundation
Milparanga

MILPARANGA EMERGING LEADERSHIP

Leadership development for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People aged 21 years and over in the early stages of leadership.

Milparanga is an immersive and culturally safe experience. You can expect to hear stories from Indigenous leaders, visit culturally significant sites to learn about Indigenous history and legacies, and meet and hear stories from Milparanga graduates. Milparanga also involves outdoor activities. You can expect to be pushed outside of your comfort zone with activities that help you get to know yourself better and make you a better communicator.

Application period

8-28 August 2022

Shortlisting

29 August-2 September 2022

Interviews

5-9 September 2022

Notification

9 September 2022

Program date & location

6 -13 October 2022

Cairns, North Queensland

Cost

Travel and program fully-funded by scholarships.

AUD 220 network membership and administration fee (support to cover this fee is available on an individual basis).

Want to know more or apply?
Contact us or scan the QR code.

Grant Cameron

Program Manager

grantc@rural-leaders.org.au
02 6281 0680

Suanne Sands

Program Coordinator

suannes@rural-leaders.org.au

This program is funded by

Australian Government
National Indigenous Australians Agency

NIAA

rural-leaders.org.au | 02 6281 0680 | info@rural-leaders.org.au

